

Application to CRWT 89 Creative Writing Independent Project

Please submit this application the term before you intend to pursue your independent project.

Prerequisite: CRWT 89 is normally reserved for seniors who have completed at least two workshops in the designated genre of their project

Submit the complete application along with your writing sample to the Department Administrator (katherine.h.gibbel@dartmouth.edu) and the Creative Writing Director. Please cc your intended faculty advisor.

Student Name _____

Specify genre (fiction/creative nonfiction/poetry/hybrid): _____

Working title of project: _____

Overall GPA: _____

GPA in the major: _____

By the time you submit this proposal, you should have already discussed the project with a potential faculty advisor. Please list your faculty advisor here.

Advisor: _____

Please prepare the following proposal and attach it to this cover sheet along with your writing sample (15-20 pages of fiction/creative nonfiction; 6-8 poems).

Project Proposal

- 1) Briefly describe your proposed independent study project.
- 2) How did the work originate and how do you see it developing further?
- 3) What writers or works influence or in some way inform your project?

Bibliography. These may be authors you have already read who have influenced your work and/or authors you intend to read.