

Application to Honors or Senior Independent Study in Creative Writing

Application deadline: Friday Oct 26, 2018.

Students will be notified of their status by the end of the fall term.

Submit the complete application along with your writing sample to the Department Administrator (bruch.lehmann@dartmouth.edu)

Student Name _____

Please indicate what type of project you are proposing (Honors or Independent Study):

Note: Students who have completed the creative writing concentration and six major courses and have a grade point average in the major of 3.5 or higher (and a college GPA of 3.0 or higher) are eligible to apply for Honors in Creative Writing.

Specify genre (fiction/creative nonfiction/poetry/hybrid): _____

Working title of project: _____

Overall GPA: _____

GPA in the major: _____

Please provide the name of three prospective advisors, in order of preference. If possible, we will try to match you with the desired advisor.

Thesis Advisor:

#1 _____ #2 _____ #3 _____

Please prepare the following proposal and attach it to this cover sheet along with your writing sample (15-20 pages of fiction/creative nonfiction; 6-8 poems). The writing sample should speak to your intended project.

Project Proposal

- 1) Briefly describe your proposed thesis or independent study project.
- 2) How did the work originate and how do you see it developing further?
- 3) What writers or works influence or in some way inform your project?

Bibliography. These may be authors you have already read who have influenced your work and/or authors you intend to read.

List of courses. Provide a list of English and creative writing courses taken, with instructor, term, and grades received.